9 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

No. 2:09-CR-00116-RHW-1

10 Plaintiff,

11 ORDER FOLLOWING
12 v. INITIAL APPEARANCE
13 EDDIE RAY HALL, ON PETITION
14 Defendant.

15
16 At Defendant's March 4, 2021, initial appearance based on a petition for 17 action, post-conviction, filed March 1, 2021, ECF No. 283, alleging violations,
18 Nos. 8 and 9, Defendant appeared via video while in custody at the Spokane
19 County Jail. Assistant Federal Defender Colin Prince represented the Defendant
20 and appeared by video from another location. Assistant U.S. Attorney Earl Hicks
21 represented the United States and appeared by video from a separate location.
22 United States Probation Officer Lori Cross was present telephonically. At the time
23 of the hearing, Defendant consented to proceeding by video.

24 Defendant was advised of, and acknowledged, his rights.

25 Defendant did not dispute that probable cause exists for purposes of 26 scheduling a supervised release revocation hearing. Accordingly, the Court finds
27 PROBABLE CAUSE to hold Defendant to respond to the violations set forth in 28 the Petition, ECF No. 283.

The matter of detention having already been addressed, IT IS ORDERED Defendant shall be held in detention pending the revocation hearing, or until further order of the court.

If a party desires this Court to reconsider conditions of release because of material and newly discovered circumstances pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), that party shall file a two-page motion for reconsideration succinctly stating what circumstances are new, how they are established, and the requested change in conditions of release. The motion shall indicate whether opposing counsel or U.S. Probation objects, and if a hearing is desired. This Court will treat the motion as expedited and submitted without argument and will set a hearing or issue other orders as may be appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED March 4, 2021.
